EAST TEXAS DISTRICT YOUTH CAMP RULES AND REGULATIONS

In order to conduct a well-ordered and spirited Youth Camp for young people, it is necessary to require each camper, along with their parents, to agree to the following regulations. We expect and require all campers and staff to abide by the following:

1. The Youth Camp Application must be filled out completely and the Medical release signed by parent or guardian. YOU CANNOT ENTER CAMP WITHOUT IT BEING SIGNED.
2. The Camp Board reserves the right to decline any application submitted by a prospective camper.
3. All campers should be encouraged to pre-register; however, dorm assignments will be made on a first come, first served basis.
4. The girls' dormitory is off limits to all male campers, and the boys' dormitory is off limits to all female campers. NO EXCEPTIONS!
5. Each camper is required to attend all classes and services unless sickness is reported and their monitor gives permission.
6. Any sickness should be reported immediately to your monitor. In case of serious illness or accident, the parent will be notified immediately.
7. Any camper refusing to abide by the camp rules will have their pastor and their parents notified, and the camper will be subject to be sent home at the parent's expense. There are no refunds for a student who is sent home.
8. A. DRESS CODE FOR LADIES : Dresses must come to the middle of the knees or longer and must have a sleeve. Slits will not be allowed above the knees. Shorts must be to the middle of the knees, or longer, and must be loose-fitting. Pants and capris must be loose fitting. No cutoffs, sundresses, sleeveless blouses or tops. Swimsuits must be one pieces only (no bikinis) Offensive or suggestive attire will not be allowed, and no gothic dress. Pajamas may not be worn outside dorms. No body piercings or excessive piercings allowed.
9. B. DRESS CODE FOR MEN: Shorts must be loose fitting and to the middle of the knees. Shirts must have sleeves (no tank tops or sleeveless shirts).
